On May 23, 1961, Reverend SYDNEY LOVETT, Executive Vice-President, Yale-In-China Association, and former Master of Pierson College, Yale University, advised that he recalled the applicant as a resident of Pierson College a number of years ago. He described him as an excellent student, having a fine personality and spotless character. He participated in affairs at Pierson College and showed great promise as a person and scholar. He subsequently went on to law school at some other university. His roommates and friends were all outstanding individuals of good character. The applicant's loyalty is unquestioned, and Reverend LOVETT highly recommended him for a position with the United States Government.

CREDIT AND CRIMINAL

Records of the New Haven, Connecticut Credit Bureau, searched by Mrs. DOROTHY SIMPSON, and records of the New Haven, Connecticut Police Department, searched by Sergeant A. B. O'DONNELL, contained no information identifiable with the applicant. Records searched May 29, 1961.

On May 23, 1961, BARBARA LUPINO, Secretary, Office of the Associate Dean, Yale College, reviewed her records and advised that HEYMANN entered Yale College in September, 1950, and graduated June 7, 1954, with a BA degree. He stood 17th out of a class of 738, was rated an excellent student and was a member of Pierson College. At Yale he majored in Philosophy and he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. There was no derogatory or unfavorable information concerning him in the records.

On May 23, 1961, Mrs. M. M. COELLER, Secretary to the Master, Pierson College, Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut, reviewed her records and advised that HEYMANN was a resident of Pierson College for three years. During his senior year, EDWARD HOOPS and ROBERT TODD were his roommates. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, and graduated cum laude. In 1950-1951, he was a member of the Air ROTC. He was on the Pierson College Advisory Council. He also participated in the Pierson College football and softball teams. He was an exceptionally bright student who got along with everyone.

Mrs. COELLER was not personally acquainted with the applicant and advised that the present Master of Pierson College did not hold this position in 1954 and would not be acquainted with the applicant.

On May 26, 1961, CHARLES W. HENDEL, Professor Emeritus, Moral Philosophy and Metaphysics, Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut, advised that he well recalls the applicant who was one of his best students and a person of sterling character. He was a fine student who distinguished himself in the Philosophy Department. Professor HENDEL advised that he made a mental reservation to follow the career of the applicant and attempt to induce him to follow Philosophy as a profession. Unfortunately, however, he lost track of the applicant after he left Yale.

Professor HENDEL stated that the applicant was extremely intelligent and cultured and first rate in every respect. His work in the Philosophy Department entitled him to honors. No student in recent years impressed Professor HENDEL more than the applicant.

Professor HENDEL stated that he had the applicant in several discussion groups consisting of ten to fifteen students and had a good opportunity to become acquainted with him. He stated he was not acquainted with the applicant's associates but assumed that they were all fellow students of good morals and character, and advised he never had any reason to suspect the applicant's loyalty. He advised that the applicant is clear headed, forthright, and Professor HENDEL highly recommended him for a position involving trust and confidence with the Government.

On May 23, 1961, JOHN E. SMITH, Professor of Philosophy, Yale University, New Haven, advised that he recalled the applicant as a person of good morals and character and an excellent student in the Philosophy Department. He stated the applicant had a nice personality, was neat in appearance, and got along well not only with his classmates but with the professors. Professor SMITH was not acquainted with the applicant's associates but assumed them to be fellow students of good morals and character. He stated that the applicant's loyalty to this country was unquestioned. He recalled writing a recommendation for the applicant some years ago when he was interested in entering a law school. Based on his knowledge of the applicant he highly recommended him for a position involving trust and confidence.
